

GamePlan was launched by Gene Eidelman the founder & CEO and OpsWay as a technological partner

GAMEPLAN

What is GamePlan?

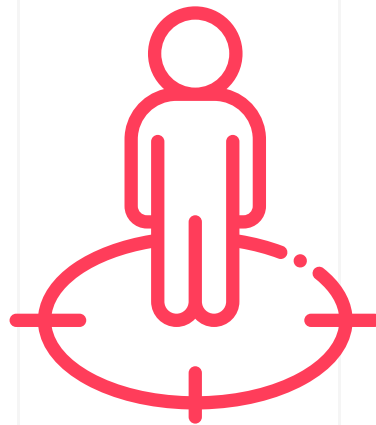

An educational tool that uses software in the fields of data extraction, information interpretation, behavioral profile generation, entity matching and machine learning. Recently it started to integrate with artificial intelligence-based technology and information from leading employers on how to develop an understanding of patterns for career progression.

GamePlan targets 2 different segments: academic and business. It can be the right tool in the hands of a student and at the same time - a big organization with hundreds of employees. Each audience is offered an individual approach starting with a free career aptitude test, online educational courses and ending with staff recruiting and career development.

The Main Goal of GamePlan

The main goal of the project is to make it possible to discover everyone's passion. You can be anywhere and at anytime you can open <http://gameplanlearning.com> and find your purpose

The image shows a web interface for creating a career game plan. It features a dark blue header with the 'GamePlan' logo and a user name 'Elizabeth Graeber'. The main content area is titled 'My Career Gameplan' and is divided into three sections: 'Career Choice', 'Skills Required', and 'Courses'. The 'Career Choice' section has a dropdown menu and three buttons: 'Email Gameplan', 'Download as PDF', and 'Save changes'. The 'Skills Required' section has three dropdown menus with the text 'Debt managment', 'Time management', and 'Communicating in English', and a 'Populate skills' button. The 'Courses' section has three progress bars, each with a dropdown menu on the left and a 'Populate courses' button on the right. The first progress bar is for a course named 'Master Desi...' and shows 0% completion. The other two progress bars are for empty dropdown menus and also show 0% completion. The progress bars are horizontal lines with a blue square at the 0% mark and numerical markers at 0, 25, 50, 75, and 100.
